

Local Dining

Grasmere is full of fantastic choices for drinking and dining - allow us to share some of our favourites with you to help make your visit even more enjoyable!

Lewis's Bistro

Loved by Oak Bank staff and guests alike, Lewis's Bistro is a popular choice among visitors. A family run business, they pride themselves on home cooked, locally sourced food. With an ever-evolving menu there is always something on their menu to please everyone, whether you're after warming tea and cake, or a sumptuous cake. They're also dog friendly and, best of all, right outside the hotel's front door. Literally.

The Yan

What can we say about The Yan that The Guardian haven't already said? Another family run business and a new addition to the Grasmere food scene, The Yan have taken everyone by storm with their fresh and delicious take on gourmet home cooking. Filling Shepherd's pies, Cumberland sausages with a side of perfect mash, slow cooked beef brisket - they serve classic dishes cooked to perfection. Their signature sharing dishes bring the family dinner to life, with everyone sharing and talking the night away. With excellent service and brilliant quality, The Yan is hard to beat.
